NEWARK'S MAYOR DECLARES FOR FULTON-DEAN BILL

Representative Fulton Says
That the Rose Law is a Failure and Would Exempt Eighty-two Cities From Its Operation--Fight Between Wets and Drys Reopened in Legislature.

WETS WIN THE FIRST SKIRMISH

Senate and House Temperance Committees Take Prompt Action on Measure to Place Cities in Liquor Class by Themselves and Both Recommend Early Vote—Committee of Ten Named to Patch Up Employers' Liability Bill.

Columbus, O., March 22.—The fight between the wets and drys was reopened in the legislature when Senator Dean in the senate and Representative Fulton in the house introduced the new Dean bill to exempt the 82 cities of the state (those of over 5,000 population) from the workings of the Rose law.

The wets scored in the opening fight for their new "Dean bill." The fight took the form of a motion to reject the bill without consideration, and was defeated by a vote of 38 to 58, about a dozen members who voted dry on the Dean bill refusing to adopt this method of killing the new bill. Among those were: Russell, the Democratic floor leader; Behns, Cathon, Crawford, Evans of Stark, Prick, Goodbread, Irvin, Lamb and Smith of Marion.

The house temperance committee ordered a favorable report on the bill and an attempt will be made today to secure a vote tomorrow. The senate temperance committee will attempt to have it brought to a vote in the upper house next Tuesday or Wednesday.

Reads Letter From Ankele.

Fulton, who comes from Newark, denied that he represented the brewers. He said he represented people of Newark and introduced the bill at their request. The law was a failure in Newark, he said, and mothers are afraid to let their boys go out of doors, for they are tempted by bootleggers in every alley. He read a letter from Mayor J. M. Ankele of Newark, classed as a "dry," urging the passage of such a law.

"The Fulton bill is practically as objectionable as the original Dean bill, and will be fought just as aggressively by the temperance people," said Wayne B. Wheeler.

By a vote of 58 to 52, the house referred the two workingmen's compensation bills—the Thomas bill, backed by the Federation of Labor, and the Black bill, backed by the employers of the state—to a special committee of 10 to draft a compromise measure and report back within 10 days. Speaker Vinson appointed the following committee: Democrats, Bell, Gehardt, Shanley, Wyman and Crawford; Republicans, Reid, Lowry of Lawrence, Geleerd, Evans of Cuyahoga and Ratliff.

Cox Trial Delayed

Judge Swing Takes Cox Plea Under Advisement.

Cincinnati, O., March 22.—Attorneys for George B. Cox gained a 24-hour respite in their endeavor to prevent Common Pleas Judge Gorman from sitting in the trial of the Cincinnati political leader on a charge of perjury. Legal technicalities were brought into play during the two hours of court session, the net result being that Judge Peter Swing took under advisement a motion of Cox's attorneys for a mandatory injunction to compel Judge Gorman to postpone action on the case until it was determined whether or not Presiding Judge Hunt of the common pleas court has power to try the case after the filing of an affidavit charging Judge Gorman with bias and prejudice.

Hoppe To Play Billiards In Paris

Paris, March 22.—The police authorities have suspended the writ of expulsion in the case of Willie Hoppe, the American billiard expert who was ordered some time ago to quit France. He has been granted a permit to remain here three months, provided he does not play in a public billiard room. As a result, Hoppe has not appeared in public since last Friday, when the permit was issued.

Show Appreciation Of Right To Vote

Milwaukee Women Outnumber Men at Municipal Election.

Milwaukee, March 22.—Milwaukee women, who had a chance to vote, embraced the opportunity by the thousands, and the result of the election for places on the school board will be decided by their ballots. In the upper East Side, in the wealthier portion of the city, the women voters far outnumbered the men. In the wards where the Socialists are strong the women voted in numbers equal to the men.

Long Campaign Futile.

Albany, N. Y., March 22.—The senate judiciary committee practically killed the votes for women propositions and brought to another unsuccessful end a campaign waged by the suffragists for weeks with greater force and expense than ever before. By a vote of 8 to 3, the committee in executive session refused to report out the two bills of Senator Josiah T. Newcomb, each aimed to give women the right to vote in this state.

Woman Nominated For Mayor.

Hunnswell, Kan., March 22.—Mrs. J. E. Wilson was nominated for mayor and Mrs. G. A. Osborn for police judge of the city, by a caucus of women. The women are planning a real campaign to secure the election of these two candidates. They are not interested in any other offices. Hunnswell was once a cow town.

Photos From Fort Bliss, Tex., Showing Camp Life Of United States Cavalrymen Who Guard Border.

Napoleon once said something about an army fighting on its stomach, and other generals have testified to the fact that the best fed soldiers are the ones that win victories. Uncle Sam is learning how to feed his soldiers. For one thing he is cutting out the embalmed beef that made the Spanish war famous. Herewith is shown the Fourth cavalry preparing meals and at "mess" at Fort Bliss, near El Paso, Tex.; likewise attending to the important duty of shoeing the cavalry horses. The cut is made from photos taken in the field by specially commissioned photographers. The Fourth has been patrolling the Mexican border. Recently a squadron was detached from it to do police duty at Camp Sam Houston, San Antonio.

CRAZED WOMAN KILLS CHILD WITH RAZOR

Woman Supposed to be Cured of Mental Troubles Binds Hands and Feet of Seven-year-old Boy and Literally Slashes Him to Pieces With Razor.

BROODED OVER MELBER CRIME

Mrs. Benjamin Granger of Pottsville, Pa., Runs Amuck After Bloody Deed and Frightens School Children as She Rushes Through Streets With Bloodstained Clothing, Brandishing Razor in the Air and Tearing Out Hair by Handfuls.

Pottsville, Pa., March 22.—Apparently cured of her mental trouble and recently released from a private hospital at Lebanon, Mrs. Benjamin Granger, aged 30, a close reader of the Albany (N. Y.) child murder case, went suddenly insane here and killed her only son, John Edward Granger, aged 7.

After dinner the mother took her boy out through an isolated section known as "The Hines." There she tied his hands and feet and stuffed a handkerchief down his throat to stop his cries. Using a razor, while he lay helpless she cut his throat from ear to ear. The sharp blade was then used to slice the child from the neck down his chest, clear to his abdomen. The boy made a vain fight for his life. In his struggles he wrenched one hand loose. Ten minutes later the crime was discovered.

The mother was arrested. Her face and clothing were covered with blood. The woman shrieked and screamed and made a terrific spectacle to several hundred school children as she ran up and down the street with the bloody razor in one hand and with the other tearing out handfuls of her hair.

Injuries Fatal to Doctor.

Massillon, O., March 22.—Dr. Marcus Bughman died at the city hospital from wounds received when he attempted to board a freight to ride out to his farm at Brewster. He slipped and fell beneath the wheels.

Woman's Suffrage Defeated in Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., March 22.—The Iowa senate, at the close of an exciting debate, defeated the resolution for women suffrage by a vote of 27 to 21. An immense crowd of women from Des Moines was in the senate chamber when the vote was taken.

TROOPS Will Not Cross Border

Declares President Taft Yesterday

Must Play in Own Backyard.
Would Not Act Without Congressional Backing.

WAR FAR FROM HIS THOUGHTS

Provides Necessary Means of Protecting American Lives and Property in Mexico and Leaves Action to Congress—Warcloud Rapidly Disappearing Below Horizon at San Antonio—Interest Aroused by Searching of American.

Washington, March 22.—Troops now in Texas will not be ordered to cross the Rio Grande, as President Taft never contemplated such a move. Under the constitution he is commander-in-chief of the army and navy, but under the constitution also it is the right of congress to declare war. He never suspected, one of his friends said, that anybody in the country would think that he could contemplate such a step without the authority of congress.

The paramount reason for sending the troops to Texas was to be ready for any emergency which might arise. The entire movement has been precautionary. The president acted solely with a view to protecting the lives of Americans in Mexico and of keeping intact the hundreds of millions of dollars' worth of property there owned by United States citizens.

Has Done His Part.

The troops will be in Texas when congress meets in April. If the revolution in Mexico grows and American interests are threatened, congress will have an army of 20,000 men within easy moving distance of the trouble. The president believes that he has done his part. He has gone as far as he could go, and hopes that it will not be necessary to go any further. If, later, congress feels that the lives and property of Americans in Mexico are in danger and interference necessary, the president will follow its will. Until congress gives the word, though, there will be no movement of troops at the president's direction except on the American side of the Rio Grande.

The president has paid not the slightest attention to reports that insurgents in congress, and notably in the senate, intend to make political capital out of this movement of troops. He told friends that he cared absolutely nothing for any adverse effect politically which his action might have. He thought that American lives and property might be in danger and he acted. If some insurgents in congress wish to kick up a row, the president will not seek to call them off.

The statement which has appeared from time to time that Wall street figured in the sudden dispatch of the troops to Texas also was discredited by men close to the president.

USURPED AUTHORITY

Detective Employed by Mexican Consul Searches American.

San Antonio, Tex., March 22.—The warcloud on the southern horizon of San Antonio, which a novelist would have made no bigger than a man's hand three days ago, is now not larger than a fingernail, and the fact that the "San Antonio Light" gives three columns to the opening of the convention of the Cattlemen's association and only half a column of scattered reports about threes on the border, is indicative of a local return to calm.

But the latest word from across the border in the newly troubled states of Nuevo Leon and Coahuila is one of increased disorder and spreading ruin. For the first time since the insurrection started the International & Great Northern train from Laredo.

Peculiar But Not Scary Is the New Taxation Plan

County Auditor Henkle Makes Some Estimates
With the Best and Only Material He Has at Hand, Which Show, Approximately, Just About What in the Way of a Tax Rate the People May Expect for the Year 1911.

Owners of Farm Lands Have No Cause to Feel Uneasy Over the Tremendous Increase in the Appraised Value of Farm Lands—Realization of the Hope That Personal Property Returns May be Increased is the Solution to the Puzzle in the Corporations Where "One Per Cent." Will Not Do the Work.

Although there is by no manner of means the amount of commotion in this city and county over the adoption of a new system or plan of taxation that there is existing in other parts of the state, still some agitation is plainly noticeable "in spots."

Whenever and wherever it does exist though it is found to be in whole or in part attributable to a misunderstanding of some sort. The great source of trouble is found to exist in the fact that there is a fear that the higher appraisement means that the real estate owner is to pay more taxes. Nothing could be further from the true fact. The aim is to reduce the amount of taxes which real estate owners are now compelled to pay and the possibility of their being compelled to pay more has been abundantly safeguarded by the present law, and it is proposed to still further safeguard by legislation now proposed.

Whether the returns of personal property this year will show enough increase over 1910 returns to, in connection with the real estate apprais-ments as made by the quadrennial appraisers, equalized by the local board of review and increased from 60 to 80 per cent. by the State Tax Commission, produce the funds necessary to bear the various public expenses for which taxes are annually collected, is a question with which the real estate owner need not, at this time, concern himself.

With a view to shedding some light on a question which is perplexing some taxpayers a great deal, County Auditor Henkle has been busy making estimates as to just what the top tax rate, in the various taxing districts throughout the county will be.

Of course it must be understood at the outset that these figures are neither final nor authoritative, largely because of the fact that there is no means of knowing what the 1911 return of personal property will bring on to the duplicate nor exactly what change the State Tax Commission may order in the real estate appraisement.

In making up these estimates, however, the auditor has endeavored to show just how high the tax rate can be in each taxing district, rather than to show how much lower it may be.

It is now practically assured that farm land appraisements in this county will be increased by the State Tax Commission from 60 to 80 per cent.

Taking that as a part of his base of calculations, the auditor has added to that sum the amount of personal property returned in 1910.
These two, together have furnished him an estimated sum upon which the taxes for 1911 will be levied. It is not reasonable to suppose, in view of the reduced tax rate that the personal property returns in 1911 will not be very materially increased.
But in making these estimates that prospective increase has been disregarded by the auditor and figuring that the assessors' return for 1911 will not show any increase over those of the year 1910, and that it will be necessary to raise as much money as was raised in the year, 1909, plus 6 per cent. which is the limit of the law, it will be necessary to fix a tax rate throughout the county as follows: Concord township and Staunton, 5.65 mills; Green township, 9.06 mills; Jasper township and South Plymouth, 7.80 mills; Milledgeville School District, 8.67

mills; Jefferson township, 5.85 mills;
Jefferson School District, 9.28 mills;
Madison township, 7.03 mills; White Oak School District, 6.60 mills; Marion township, 6.04 mills; Paint township and Hidy, 6.40 mills; Bloomington School District, 12.25

mills; Perry township, 8.35 mills;
Union township, 6.19 mills; Wayne township, 6.35 mills. This is according to the best estimates which can be made with the material now at hand about as high as the rate can be. As one man expressed it in talking about the matter, "Whatever happens can only better conditions, not worst them."

So far for the farm lands. The owners of farm lands should have no fears about the operation of the new plan. It seems that it cannot but be beneficial. Now as to the corporations a wholly different condition of affairs exist.

In Washington C. H., for instance, the real estate duplicate as equalized is $4,694,220, while in 1910 the personalty amounted to $1,057,921.

Taking these two amounts together, as the equivalent of the total upon which must be levied and collected the taxes for the year 1911, we find that in 1909, the city raised $81,137.51 and this sum plus 6 per cent. would require a levy of 14.95 mills or nearly five mills over the "one per cent." limit. In addition to this the city in 1910 instead of raising $86,005.76—the 1909 levy plus 6 per cent.—raised over $95,- 000, and still quit the game loser.

As Chimney radden would say in regard to Washington "Wot 'ell" but that is another story. Washington must do with less money or bring on to th duplicate a vast amount of personal property, or she cannot sit in the game.

Bloomington is in still worse shape. After increasing the real estate appraisement fifty per cent., which is awful, the little village to keep up its present rate of high living will require a levy, on these estimates of 26.80 mills or over twice the one per cent. limit. After figuring Jeffersonville an arbitrary increase of 33 1-3 per cent., a levy of 16.49 mills would be necessary to run the corporation based on 1909 expenditures, plus 6 per cent.

On the same basis Octa would require a 15 mills levy, and Milledgeville, 23.80 mills.

Of the corporations Washington is about the best off of any and in regard to these corporations, lays the only real difficulty to be solved. To unlock the mystery it is apparent to all that the key is the personal property which has long hid away from the assessor and to bring this on both in city and country districts will be the chief aim of the taxing authorities.

CREDITORS OF D. T. & I. COMPLAIN OF MISMANAGEMENT

Attorneys for the New York Trust Company, as trustee, and the Protective Committee of the general lien bonds of the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton Railroad Company informed Judge Swan, of the United States court, in Detroit Monday that they were dissatisfied with the operation of the road by three receivers and stated that they desired that the number should be reduced to one and that their nominee, Thomas Rhodes, should be made the sole receiver of the property. They also stated that it was their purpose to ask that an entry of a decree of sale be made on April 19, and hearing was set for that date.

Electric Roads Powers Increased

Electric railways are given all the rights now possessed by steam roads in the matter of entering upon and condemning private property for their use under the terms of the bill presented to the Senate Tuesday by Senator Dean, of Sandusky county.
The electric lines have been hampered in construction work for many years because they were unable to condemn right of way like steam roads. The present bill aims to eliminate this difficulty.

PENNSY'S PENSION PAYROLL

The annual appropriation for pensioned employees of the Pennsylvania railroad was increased by $200,000 at the annual meeting of the stockholders, Saturday.

This makes the total amount of annual pension allowances for the Pennsylvania road east of Pittsburg and Erie, more than $850,000.

The number entitled to pensions is approximately 2500. The oldest employee receiving a pension is 93.
Pension allowances are paid annually. The pension system has been in operation for eleven years, the Pennsylvania being the first road to inaugurate it. So far the total of its pension payments amounts to $6,- 500,000.

the necessary preliminary proceed-

The township trustees have acted and so have the County Commission-to the State Highway Commissioner whether we have a regular speedway along this line or not.

of the pipe on the ground the local gas and electric company will begin at once the laying of mains, so that our neighboring village will very shortly be supplied with gas for illuminating and heating purposes.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Olive Tablets.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pimples will vanish after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Nothing ever cleansed the blood, the bowels and the liver like Olive Tablets.

Olive Tablets are the only successful substitute for calomel; there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Olive Tablets do all that calomel does and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

Anyone who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

The olive oil in Olive Tablets is itself a natural laxative and has a healing, soothing, strengthening effect on the irritated organs.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Try them. Take one nightly for a week. Then look at yourself in the glass and see how you feel.

At all druggists in neat pocket packages: 15 tablets for 10c; 45 tablets for 25c.

MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT PLAN.

What is declared by experts to be the most advanced practical plan of municipal government by commission in America is now in operation in Spokane. Five commissioners, chosen from among 92 candidates at a special election on March 7, when women exercised the right of the ballot for the first time in the history of the city, were formally inducted into office on March 14, retiring Mayor Nelson S. Pratt and 10 councilmen.

Three were elected for terms of five years, and two for three years. The salary is $5,000 a year, the bond of each being fixed at $25,000.

The commission of public affairs appoints and supervises the city engineer, corporation counsel and inspector of weights and measures, the commissioner of finance controls the books and offices of the city treasurer and auditor; the commissioner of public utilities has charge of the city water works and power plant, street railway, telephone and allied affairs; the commissioner of public works has supervision of streets, pavements and sewers, and the commissioner of public safety controls the police and firemen. The commissioners also look after all the ramifications of their various duties and may change and alter these by agreement.

Three civil service commissioners, to be appointed to serve without pay, demand the merit system, examination, probations, investigations and removals on charges. The purpose is to make permanent all municipal appointments, calling for special fitness, so that a faithful public official may plan a career and fit himself accordingly, without fear of displacement by disfavor.

The charter provides for the initiative and the referendum and the recall. Fifteen per cent. of the vote is required to recall any commissioner who has been remiss or unsatisfactory in his duty.

The system of voting for the commissioners is ingenious. Twenty-five electors may nominate a candidate by taking an oath that he is qualified and a desirable man and that they desire to vote for him.

The ballot contains the names of all the candidates in alphabetic order, followed by spaces marked for first, second and third choice. The voters mark 15 crosses on the ballot, voting for five men as first choice, five others as second choice and five as third choice. However, they may vote for third choice the entire list after eliminating first and second choice.

The majority of all votes cast elects on the first choice. Then the votes for the candidates, who are unsuccessful in the first choice column and are in the second choice column, are counted to select the rest. If five candidates have a majority of first and second choice are not elected, the votes of the third choice are counted with the stragglers of the other two and the third choice selections fill out the five. The third choice men are elected by a simple majority.

The Spokane plan varies from all others by making the contest a free-for-all and not designating the office sought. There were 97 candidates at the beginning of the recent campaign. Three declined to make the race and two withdrew just before the election. It provides that candidates must not spend more than $250 during the campaign, also making it compulsory to submit an itemized statement of expenditures, and no paid workers, carriages or other conveyances are permitted on election day.

Party lines are absolutely obliterated and personalities are eliminated. The candidate must take an oath that he represents no political party in the election nor any special interests.

Spokane did not win its new government without a series of stubbornly-fought battles.

The committee embodied in its charter some of the best features of 100 plans in operation in the United States and submitted its work to the people, who adopted it by an overwhelming vote at an election on December 27, 1910.

Proceedings for injunction were instituted in the Spokane county superior court afterward. The people were sustained, but that did not clear the field. An appeal was taken to the Supreme court of Washington, the six judges of which handed down a joint opinion, upholding the legality of the charter election.

Just how this theoretically excellent plan will work in actual practice is now being watched with interest all over the country by those people, and there are hundreds of thousands of them, interested in wholesome municipal reform.

It cannot be denied that the plan now in vogue in Ohio is unwieldy, burdensome and too expensive for the smaller cities, and yet a return to the old system is not looked forward to with much confidence as furnishing the desired relief.

POETRY FOR TODAY

MY FATHER.

As falls the night upon the sleeping world,
So fell on you the last eternal sleep;
As comes the light of glistening stars unfurled,
So came to you the joys supreme, complete.
Life's battle o'er, your armor cast aside,
Finished your course, your weapons all laid down—
At last the goal upon the other side;
The words, "Well done," for you the Christian's crown.

Sleep, sweetly sleep, within thy narrow bed,
Father, comrade, of the long gone years.
Sweet bloom the flowers and fragrance widely spread
About thy grave, now hallowed by our tears.
Warm blow the winds and softly fall the rain;
Unmarred the snows upon thy sacred mound.
God gave, and in His time took back again
To where celestial joys in full abound.

Sleep, father, sleep, you won not only rest,
But rich reward for duty nobly done;
Sturdy and staunch as yonder mountain crest
You fought the fight, and glorious victory won.
Still that true heart, and hushed thy gentle voice;
Cold now that once strong, tender helpful hand.
Yet though we mourn, the angels must rejoice
To welcome you, so strong, so true, so grand.
—Will M. Maupin in The Commoner.

PECULIAR BOOZE CASE PUZZLES XENIA COPS

In the Early Dawn of One Morning Last Week a Pedestrian Was Apprehended With Two Baskets Filled With Wet Goods---Now the Officers Have Been Ever Since Trying to Find a Charge To Fit the Case.

The police of Xenia, according to the Xenia Gazette, are stumped, stunned and non-puzzled just about right. They have under arrest, a suspicious character, George Dean, a white resident of the East End of Xenia, who was caught at 2:30 o'clock one morning last week by Police Officers Graham and Tarbox, totting two big chip baskets, containing a dozen quart bottles of whiskey, down Market street. Now that they have George behind the bars the question arises as to what charge can be placed against him. He certainly was not "keeping a place." Neither was he "selling" or "furnishing" for he was absolutely alone. And there is no law against carrying booze on the streets. He was simply a suspicious character and such he promises to remain to the end, unless he gives away the secret of where he got his generous supply of "joy water" and where he was taking it to. He, however, is too toxy to volunteer any information and is being absolutely mum when questioned.

Mayor Dodds and City Solicitor Smith conferred in the matter Thursday morning and came to the conclusion that nothing can be done unless Dean "comes across" with the evidence to incriminate himself and there is a mighty slim chance of him doing that.

Dean was assuredly caught with the goods on him but that fails to prove anything. He was coming down Market street and traveling in a hurry, for the night was cold and the wind biting. When he saw the cops he darted into an alley, between two residences, but failed to make good his getaway.

MORSE'S GLYCEROLE.

An Old Reliable Preparation With a New Name.

For more than a quarter century Mr. Hazen Morse, a noted chemist, with laboratories at New Rochelle, N. Y., and Bridgeburg, Conn., has been compounding various medicinal preparations exclusively for druggists and the medical profession.

Among his products is a nerve tonic that has become famous for years all over the English speaking world. It has been prescribed by thousands of physicians and is used in hundreds of hospitals. It is purely vegetable—contains no injurious drugs of any kind—the exact formula is printed on every label. The only secret about it is Morse's method of extraction and blend.

At the urgent solicitation of druggists in all parts of the country Mr. Morse has concluded to offer this remarkable remedy to the public through drug stores as well as through physicians.

It is known to the drug trade as Morse's Glycerole. Blackmer & Tanquary have been appointed distribution agents for Washington C. H. If any reader of the Herald is troubled with insomnia, brain fog, lack of vitality or kindred ailment, you can get a 50-cent or dollar bottle at Blackmer & Tanquary with the distinct understanding that your money will be cheerfully refunded in case you are disappointed in results. There will be no quibbling. Mr. Morse takes all responsibility. Be sure to ask for Morse's Glycerole as there are nerve preparations with similar names.

BUGGY WHEELS SMASHED WHEN AUTO PASSED

But Owner Does Not Blame the Occupants of the Machine for the Dumping of Himself and Four Female Companions in Ditch—Peculiar Accident on Jeffersonville Pike Yesterday.

Tuesday afternoon Mr. Albert McCoy and Mr. O. E. Tanquary of this city, were making a trip in Mr. McCoy's automobile, their destination being quite a distance out on the Prairie pike.

When going along the Jeffersonville pike near the Prairie pike junction they observed a horse and buggy approaching from toward Jeffersonville. The buggy was a two-seated affair and contained one man and four women. It was drawn by a horse which, from its appearance, was a reliable safe family horse. Mr. McCoy observed that no signal to stop was given and cautiously pulled over to the right side of the pike, permitting plenty of room to pass, the driver of the rig pulled his horse over to the other side of the pike and in doing so got a little too far to the side, throwing the wheels on the outside of the road just over the edge of a steep incline, which led down to the road side ditch. When the auto was almost opposite the rig the two wheels of the buggy commenced to slide down into the ditch, thus precipitating the weight of the five people on these two wheels. There was a crash as the two wheels gave way and were mashed to pieces. This, of course, upset the buggy and the occupants were thrown violently into the ditch.

The horse made no move to run away and stood perfectly still until the occupants of the buggy righted themselves.

The driver seemed to be in the best of humor about the whole affair and was very thankful to Mr. McCoy when he turned his machine around and brought two of the women to this city and returned with two new wheels for the buggy.

The man did not blame the auto-ists in the least and took the whole affair good humoredly.

Not enough importance was attached to the affair to take the names of the parties. Mr. McCoy is of the opinion, however, from remarks made that the people were from Jeffersonville and were on their way to this city to shop.

The Cause of Colds

Good Advice Regarding the Prevention of Coughs and Colds.

If people would only fortify and strengthen the system, the majority of cases of coughs, colds and pneumonia might be avoided. These troubles are frequently due to weakness, which produces a catarrhal condition of the mucous membrane, which is an internal skin of the body. When this skin is weakened it becomes easily infected with germs which cause many of the diseases to which flesh is heir. Healthy mucous membranes are essential safeguards of the body's general health.

We have a remedy which we honestly believe to be unsurpassed in excellence for the prevention of coughs, colds and all catarrhal conditions. It is the prescription of a famous physician, who has an enviable reputation of thirty years of cures gained through the use of this formula. We promise to make no charge for the medicine should it fail to do as we claim. We urge everybody who has need of such a medicine to try Rexall Mucu-Tone.

It stands to reason that we could not afford to make such statements and give our own personal guarantee to this remedy if we were not prepared to prove the reasonableness of our claim in every particular, and we see no reason why any one should hesitate to accept our offer and try it. We have two sizes of Rexall Mucu-Tone, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Sometimes a 50-cent bottle is sufficient to give marked relief. As a general thing the most chronic case is relieved with an average of three large bottles. You can obtain Rexall Remedies in Rochester only at our store.—The Rexall Store. "Married Life; Second Year."

Helen was anxiously watching the clock. It was half-past ten, and Warren had said the new maid would be there at ten. He had gone to the employment agency the day before and had come home triumphant—said he had secured a "treasure."

And now Helen was impatiently awaiting her coming. The breakfast dishes were unwashed and the apartment in a state of confusion. She had managed to give Warren a cup of coffee and a roll, but with the baby demanding attention she could do nothing more.

Eleven o'clock and still no maid. At half past eleven, Helen went to the telephone.

"1125 Courtland. Hello! I'd like to speak to Mr. Curtis. Yes, this is Mrs. Curtis."

A moment's wait.

"Oh, Warren, didn't you say she promised to be here at ten? Well, she hasn't arrived yet. Are you sure she got the right address? Did you write it down for her yourself? Shall I?" All right, good bye.

Then she took down the telephone book and turned hurriedly to the Reliable Employment Bureau.

"2656 Chelsea. Is that the employment bureau?"

"Well, the maid my husband engaged yesterday hasn't arrived."

"Mrs. Curtis, impressively, 'Mrs. Warren Curtis. Very well, I'll send the phone.' A long wait in which Helen impatiently tore tiny strips from the cover of the telephone book.

"You can't? She hasn't been there at all this morning? No, I don't want you to send some one else—I want the one my husband engaged. You think she may be here after lunch? Well, I'll wait until then."

At half past three, when, in despair Helen was about to begin at the kitchen herself, the door bell rang. A tall Irish girl, with shaggy black hair and an immense hat with a huge feather, confronted her.

"Oh, are you the new maid?"

"I'm Della O'Donoghue."

"But I thought you were to come at ten?"

"I couldn't get here any sooner," calmly, offering no explanation as to why she couldn't.

Helen led the way into the dining room.

"I suppose you have references?"

The girl took from her hand bag several letters.

"What afternoon does you give off?"

"Usually Thursday."

"And every other Sunday?"

"Unless we have company, you can get off at half-past three every Sunday."

"And there's no washing?"

"Except a few things for the baby that I don't like to send to the laundry."

"Well, if there's to be any washing I can't come for $20. I told your husband that."

"But there will be a very few things—our maid always did them—and we have never paid more than $20."

"Well, I'll see," condescendingly.

By 5 o'clock Della O'Donoghue had washed all the dishes and put the untidy kitchen in shining order. Unquestionably, she was a clean and rapid worker. And from the way she began her preparations for dinner, she was evidently a good cook.

Just before Warren came, Helen took out one of the little lace caps that she always kept freshly laundered for Anna.

"You may have brought some of your own but I always prefer to furnish the white aprons and caps to serve in."

"I don't wear no cap," briefly.

"Oh, but I always want my maid to wear a cap, especially at dinner."

"I don't wear no cap," she repeated stolidly.

"But Della, I WANT you to wear it. I wouldn't think of having dinner served by a maid without a cap!"

"I'll stay in no place where I have to wear a cap. Your husband didn't say anything about that."

Now this was not only disconcerting, but painfully embarrassing. Della went on stolidly making the potatoes while Helen stood uncertainly at the door.

"Very well," with as much dignity as she could command. "I'll speak to Mr. Curtis about this."

She left the kitchen with flaming cheeks. The incident of that girl, Warren's new maid, came to her. Just here the door opened and shut with a bang and Warren entered with a bang. "Well, did she come?"

"Yes, but not until after three."

"She's a good worker and clean?"

"Yes, but oh, Warren, she is so insolent!"

"Why she won't wear a cap. She flatly refused to!"

"Oh, blame the cap! What difference does it make as long as she does the work?"

"But Warren, I've already said she must! I said I would speak to you about it—and that you would insist upon it!"

"But we can't afford to let her disney and defy me like that! Why—"

"And we can't afford to be without a girl, now, either. If you get rid of this one, for some fool idea, I'm through! You needn't expect any more help from me." And Warren went into his room to brush up for dinner, slamming the door after him.

"How soon do you want dinner served, ma'am?" asked Della, appearing with the white apron, but with a defiant absence of any cap.

"You may serve it at once," answered Helen stiffly. "Mr. Curtis has just come."

It was a defect, a flagrant defect. Helen realized that. She had crossed swords with Della O'Donoghue and Della solved that it was a victory that would not be repeated.

If Della remained, she must be disciplined—quietly but firmly disciplined. But since she could depend on no help from Warren, she must depend wholly on herself.

SPEEDY RELIEF FROM KIDNEY TROUBLE.

"I had an acute attack of Bright's disease with inflammation of the kidneys and bladder, and dizziness," says Mrs. Cora Thorp, Jackson, Mich. "A bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy overcame the attack, reduced the inflammation, took away the pain and made the bladder action normal. I wish everyone could know of this wonderful remedy." Dayton Chamber of Commerce Says:

Mr. I. Robert Blackburn and the other gentlemen comprising the officers and directors of the Riverdale Land Company are all well and favorably known citizens of Dayton, members of the Chamber of Commerce, and we believe entitled to the confidence of any one dealing with them. (Signed) THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, Dayton, Ohio.

Theo. Roosevelt Quoted:

"I believe the purchase of irrigated land to be the best way for a man with small means to make himself independent. And I believe I am qualified to pass judgment, as I have been interested in irrigation matters locally and nationally for fifteen years."

The result is simply astounding to those unfamiliar with the great subject of irrigation.

The owner of a Ten-Acre Irrigated Farm doesn't have to "struggle to the limit" nor strain his conscience in the struggle in the intense competition of the day.

"His income is practically untouched by financial depression."

"His living and peace of mind are not dependent upon the whim of any man."

"He is king in his own little domain."

"He can make his little ten acres earn as much as a quarter section (160 acres) unirrigated, would produce as much as between twenty and eighty thousand dollars in cash would bring loaned out at 6 per cent."

Location of Riverdale

Riverdale lies half-way between Palatka and Jacksonville on the east side of the beautiful and wide St. Johns river, 12 miles directly west of St. Augustine. NO TAXES TO PAY until the land is fully paid for, a contract bond for deed is given and a warranty deed is given when the land is fully paid for. Send $1.00 for each acre wanted or $5.00 for each down lot. Return to: Western National Bank, Dayton, Ohio; Dayton National Bank, Chamber of Commerce, Dayton, Ohio.

READ EVERY WORD NOW—AND THEN ACT

WHILE OPPORTUNITY LASTS. HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF ACRES in Florida have advanced from 100 per cent to 2,000 per cent in the last five years, and the advance is still going on. Soon all the good, fertile, productive soil will be taken and then the price of land will soar, and opportunity for the man of small means will have vanished.

HERE IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY!

Nearly all of the large tract at Riverdale, Florida, was sold during the past year without any advertising whatever. It was sold in ten, twenty and forty-acre tracts to people who had traveled all over the state seeking the best land, climate, transportation and artistic lands, with good natural drainage. The people who investigated thoroughly RIVERDALE AT RIVERDALE, and paid from $15 to $50 per acre for my land when they could have bought land at from $10 to $20. They bought at Riverdale because of the RICH BLACK LOAM soil, the natural flowing artesian wells obtainable on every tract, the cheapness of water and rail transportation and the WONDERFULLY IDEAL CLIMATE the year round, and beautiful scenery, with opportunities for hunting and fishing. Persons in broken health bought, settled there and now HAVE PERFECT HEALTH.

THIS OPPORTUNITY OF A LIFETIME

You can surely recall that only a few years ago the wideawake men who invested in far Western lands were looked upon as fools and dreamers, and you surely know that thousands became wealthy by their foresight. Many of them started with small purchases and gradually increased their holdings while land was cheap, and these same men are to-day living in luxury and worth thousands of dollars.

The population of the United States is increasing at a tremendous rate, and the demand for land steadily increasing, so that the safest and SUREST INVESTMENT is in land—especially in land like that at Riverdale, Fla., which has practically been discovered within the past few years as being the most productive land in the country. I venture the prediction that in 10 years all good land in Florida will be of an average value of $1,000 to $1,200 per acre. This because the price of farm and truck produce is high, and advancing, while the population of the whole country is growing over a million a year.

Be quick to seize this opportunity and in the years to come you need not lament "what might have been." The men who profit are the ones who buy land at such low figures as $25 per acre, cultivate it, reap the harvest of their crops and steadily see the price of their land advance to $100, then to $200 and then to $500 to $1,000 per acre. It is not the man who says, "I'll wait a year or two and see how it's going to turn out," for when he sees it "turn out," it's then too late to buy at low and profitable figures, for time waits on no man, and time alone will advance the values of all Florida land tremendously.

$10 WILL START YOU NOW ON THE ROAD TO INDEPENDENCE, HEALTH AND WEALTH

A ten-acre irrigable farm tract at Riverdale will undoubtedly produce more valuable crops in one year than 100 acres of Northern land. This fact has been demonstrated over and over again in Florida within the past few years. The crops are SURE; the irrigation by your own artesian well makes you independent, even of Nature's rains. The rich black loam soil, properly and easily cultivated, makes failure IMPOSSIBLE. The only failures in good Florida land are the "lazy good-for-nothings." If you are one, stay where you are, but, if you are ambitious and determined to be well-fed for old age, then I strongly urge this splendid chance be taken to MEET OPPORTUNITY FACE TO FACE—and be a WINNER in life's competition with poverty.

TRANSPORTATION

Riverdale is favored by nature in the matter of cheap transportation. From Riverdale, Fla., you can reach New York, Boston and Philadelphia in much cheaper than by rail. Two lines of steamboats ply the St. Johns River and docking facilities are abundantly provided, and as the community grows additional conveniences will be provided by these steamship companies.

RAILROADS

Directly across the river is a railroad station of the Atlantic Coast Line R. R., while a few miles back from the river is the Florida East Coast R. R. branch road running to Hastings and Palatka. This condition is sure to perpetuate cheap river transportation, for competition is the dominant factor in freight rates.

MAIL SERVICE

Riverdale is now a U. S. Postoffice and the mail steamers stop twice daily, so that your correspondence is afforded daily care equal to any rural portion of the country.

TELEPHONE

Riverdale has a long distance telephone that all settlers may use, and in a few years will no doubt have a long branch exchange for the convenience of all farm homes.

SCHOOLS

Riverdale has been provided with a commodious school house of artistic and substantial architecture and if you have children it will please you to know that the public school system of Florida is second to none and you may rest assured that your children will obtain a good education while they are growing strong and healthy in the delightful climate and preserving their morals by not being thrown into contact with the temptations and environment of city life.

RIVERDALE NOT AN EXPERIMENT

What Actual Settlers Say

Extracts: "After traveling all over Florida, I finally selected Riverdale as the ideal location for my land, climate, transportation and irrigation. I have been here over a year and am growing more and more pleased with my investment, and the outlook for a very prosperous year. Every one here is likewise satisfied, and I am sure that the future of Riverdale is bright. I came from the cold state of Minnesota and now appreciate this wonderful climate and productive soil." THOMAS TOMLINSON, Riverdale, Fla.

Improved Health

"I certainly am well pleased with my purchase of Riverdale land and am well pleased with the results that I am seeing. My wife's health is greatly improved. The soil, climate, water and transportation are the finest. We have a public school and a local improvement Association." O. S. RHODES, Riverdale, Fla.

"My whole family enjoy the life here at Riverdale, and everybody is sociable and friendly. The value of our land and adjoining land is on the increase. This land at $25 per acre is a bargain and I have never regretted my purchase of land and town lots. As I have been buying more as fast as I could, Riverdale has more real advantages than most any place in Florida. Crops are looking fine (the number and the yield next year will be astounding to the one settlers." FRANK BOOMERSHINE, Riverdale.

"If I were asked where to find a better location for a winter home or a farm tract, I could not name a better place than Riverdale. The longer I live here the better I like it. Coming from the city, it is like a new world to me; the freedom, the beauty, the air, the foliage, flowers and delightful weather make it seem like Paradise." D. C. OAVENDEK, Riverdale.
